- Inform you about changes or updates to our services;
- Provide you with news on the events, innovative products or the reference market of Laserline Safety and Security Systems srl;
- Update our website, indicating the partnerships of our company;
- Observe the laws, regulations and current sector regulations;
- Communicate with you or with third parties.

Your data are processed:

A) without your express consent (Article 24, subparas. a), b), c) of the Privacy Code and Art. 6, subparas. b), c) and e) of EU Regulation 679/2016, for the following "Service Purposes":

- conclude the contracts for the supply of the products and/ r services of the Data Controller, including the subsequent assistance and, more generally, the execution of your specific requests;
- fulfill the contractual, pre-contractual, administrative, accounting and tax obligations deriving from the current relations with you;
- administrative and accounting purposes of associated companies;
- all those subjects (including Public Authorities) who have access to personal data under regulatory, administrative or legal measures;
- exercise the rights of the Data Controller, for example the right to defense in court;

B) only subject to your specific and distinct consent (Articles 23 and 130 of the Privacy Code and Article 7 of the EU Regulation 679/2016,)) for the following marketing purposes:

- sending via e-mail, mail and/or SMS and/or telephone contacts, newsletters, commercial communications and/or advertising material on products or services offered by the Data Controller and questionnaires for the detection of the degree of satisfaction on the quality of services;

- sending via e-mail, mail and/or SMS and/or telephone contacts, commercial and/or promotional communications of third parties (for example, business partners, suppliers, etc.).

Please note that if you are already a customer, we may send commercial communications related to Laserline Safety and Security Systems srl services and products similar to those you have already used, subject to your explicit dissent (Article 130 paragraph 4 of the Privacy Code).

4. Processing methods:

The processing of your personal data is carried out by means of the operations indicated in Art. 4 of Legislative Decree 196/2003 and Art. 4 no. 2) of EU Regulation 679/2016, namely: collection, registration, organization, conservation, consultation, processing, modification, selection, extraction, comparison, use, interconnection, blocking, communication, deletion and destruction of data.

Your personal data are subjected to both paper and electronic and or automated processing.

5. Legal basis of the processing:

The legal basis of the processing of your personal data, in compliance with the laws and regulations in force on privacy, is carried out in the following cases:

- following your authorization;
- in execution of a contract that we have entered into with you or with another third party;
- legitimate interests claimed by Laserline Safety and Security Systems srl in the exercise of the activities;
- compliance with the legal obligations or provisions of the competent Authorities.

6. Legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller:

The legitimate interests pursued by the Data Controller in the processing of data is given by the need to observe and comply with the contractual obligations signed between the parties, as well as by the provisions contained in Art. 6 of EU Regulation 679/2016

7. Mandatory or optional nature of the provision of data and consequences of a refusal to respond:

The nature of the provision of data by you is mandatory for the purposes shown under paragraph 3 (A) of this Policy, with the consequence that, in case of refusal, we cannot guarantee the execution of the "Service purposes" mentioned therein and fulfill the contractual obligations.

The provision of data for the purposes referred to in paragraph 3 (B) of this Policy is instead free and optional. It is therefore possible to decide not to disclose any data or to subsequently deny the possibility of processing data already provided: in this case, you will not receive newsletters, commercial communications and advertising material concerning the Products and Services offered by the Data Controller. However, you will continue to be entitled to the Services referred to in paragraph 3 (A) of this Policy.

8. Communication of data to third parties:

Your personal data will be processed by the Data Controller, by the Data Processor appointed by him/her and by the strictly authorized processing staff.

Your data may be disclosed as a result of inspections or checks (if required), to all inspection bodies responsible for checks and inspections concerning the regularity of legal obligations.

Your data may also be communicated to companies/professional firms that provide assistance, advice or collaboration to the Data Controller, in accounting, personal, administrative, tax, legal, tax and financial matters, to public administrations for the performance of the institutional functions within the limits established by law or by regulations and to third party service providers to whom communication is necessary for the performance of the services covered by the contract.

9. Storage times:

The Data Controller will process your personal data for the time necessary to fulfill the aforementioned purposes and in any case for no more than 10 years from the termination of the Service Purpose relationship and for no more than 5 years from the collection of data for Marketing Purposes.

10. Intention of the Data Controller:

The Data Controller will not transfer your personal data to a third country or to an international organization.

In any case, the protection of personal data must be guaranteed according to the modes expressed in this Policy, in order to protect the observance of privacy according to the relevant legal provisions.

11. Rights of the Data Subject

The Data Subject may at any time exercise the rights reserved to him/her, sanctioned by Art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/03 and Article 15 of EU Regulation 679/2016, of which the full text is reported.

Legislative Decree 196/03 - Article 7. Right to access personal data and other rights

1. The Data Subject has the right to obtain confirmation of the existence or not of personal data concerning him/her, even if they are not yet registered, and their communication in an intelligible form. 2. The Data Subject has the right to obtain confirmation of: a) the origin of personal data; b) the purposes and methods of the processing; c) the logic applied in the case of processing carried out with the aid of electronic tools; d) the identification details of the holder, the persons responsible and the designated representative within the meaning of Article 5, paragraph 2; e) the subjects or categories of persons to whom the personal data may be disclosed or who may become aware of them as appointed representative in the territory of the State, of persons in charge or entitled. 3. The Data Subject has the right to obtain: a) the updating, rectification or, where relevant, integration of data; b) the cancellation, transformation into anonymous form or blocking of data processed in violation of law, including those that are not required to be kept in relation to the purposes for which the data were collected or subsequently processed; c) the certification that the transactions referred to in sections (a) and (b) have been made aware, including their content, of those to whom the data have been communicated or disclosed, except where such fulfillment is impossible or involves the use of means manifestly disproportionate to the protected right. 4. The Data Subject has the right to object, in whole or in part: a) the processing of personal data concerning him/her for legitimate reasons, even though relevant to the purpose of the collection; b) the processing of personal data concerning him/her for the purpose of sending advertising material or direct sales or for carrying out market research or sending commercial communications.

EU Reg. 679/2016 - Article 15. Right of access of the Data Subject

The Data Subject has the right to obtain from the Data Controller confirmation that it is or is not undergoing treatment of personal data concerning him/her and, in this case, to obtain access to personal data and the following information: a) the purposes of the processing; b) the categories of personal data in question; c) the recipients or categories of recipients to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed, in particular if recipients of third countries or international organizations; (d) where possible, the storage period of the personal data provided or, if not possible, the criteria used to determine this period; e) the existence of the right of the Data Subject to request the Data Controller to rectify or delete personal data or limit the processing of personal data concerning him/her or to oppose their processing; f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority; g) if the data are not collected from the Data Subject, all information available on their origin; (h) the existence of an automated decision-making process, including the profiling referred to in Article 22 (1) and (4) and, at least in such cases, significant information on the logic used, and the importance and expected consequences of such processing for the Data Subject. 2. Where personal data are transferred to a third country or to an international organization, the Data Subject has the right to be informed of the existence of adequate safeguards pursuant to Article 46 relating to the transfer. 3. The Data Controller provides a copy of the personal data being processed. In case of further copies requested by the Data Subject, the Data Controller may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs. If the Data Subject submits the request by electronic means, and unless otherwise indicated by the Data Subject, the information is provided in a commonly used electronic format. 4. The right to obtain a copy as referred to in paragraph 3 must not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

The exercise of rights can be exercised by writing to the email address or by writing to the addresses of the Data Processor or to the Data Protection Officer appointed pursuant to Art. 37 of EU Regulation 679/2016

12. Consent to the processing of personal data

The undersigned, having read the Policy, expresses consent to the processing of data for the purposes referred to in paragraph 3 (A) of this Policy, declaring to be aware of the fact that the absence of consent determines the impossibility of Laserline Safety and Security Systems srl to achieve the purposes set out in paragraph 3 (A), therefore any failure to provide authorization to use such data will make it impossible for Laserline Safety and Security Systems srl to continue in the contractual or pre-contractual activities and to execute the relative obligations.
